

General Terms and Conditions of Business

Strictly private and confidential

1. Definitions

1.1. In the General Terms and Conditions of Business the following clauses have the following meanings:

“Areta” shall mean Areta Group AB and any of its affiliates.

“Client” shall mean any person whether an individual or an incorporated Entity who has entered into a Service Agreement with Areta or on whose behalf Areta has been engaged in relation to the provision of Services for or in connection with an Entity.

“Employee” shall mean any: director, officer, consultant, or any other employee of Areta.

“Entity” shall mean any: body corporate, partnership (whether incorporated or unincorporated) or any other entity or relationship created or existing in or under the laws of any jurisdiction and whether having legal personality or not to or for which Services are provided by Areta.

“Services” shall mean all Services carried out or performed for or on behalf of or in connection with any Entity (whether before or after its establishment) by Areta as specified in any Service Agreement, Fee Schedule, other written agreement, or ad-hoc request.

“Service Agreement” shall mean any: agreement entered into by Areta with the Client and/or the Entity in relation to the provision of Services whether or not such agreement is in writing or executed by the Client.

“Terms of Business” shall mean the General Terms and Conditions of Business in force from time to time subject as herein provided.

1.2. Any terms not defined in the Terms of Business but defined in any Service Agreement shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the same meaning in the Terms of Business.

2. Order of precedence

2.1. The Terms of Business shall apply to all Services provided by Areta, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing between the Client and Areta.

2.2. The Terms of Business shall, subject to Clause 2.3, govern the provisions of Services by Areta irrespective of whether the Client has signed a Service Agreement, unless otherwise agreed in writing, by instructing Areta to provide the Services following receipt of the Terms of Business, the Client shall be deemed to have agreed to the terms set out in the Terms of Business. The Terms of Business shall be binding on the Client and the Entity.

2.3. In the event of any conflict with the Terms of Business, the provision of any Service Agreement shall prevail provided that such agreement is in writing.

2.4. The Terms of Business and any Fee Schedule may be amended and varied from time to time in accordance with Clause 18 of these Terms of Business, provided the Client agrees in writing to be bound by such amendments from time to time.

2.5. The Terms of Business shall not be enforceable against Areta by any legal or physical person other than the Client.

3. Performance of Services

- 3.1. Areta shall see to the Entity's affairs on a day-to-day basis by suitably qualified Employees, who shall undertake work in connection with the Services and act as points of contact for the Client or any expressly appointed representative.
- 3.2. Areta shall arrange for the provision of the Services to the Entity as indicated in the Service Agreement entered into by Areta with the Entity and/or the Client in accordance with any Fee Schedule that might be in force from time to time.
- 3.3. Areta shall in any event refrain from and refuse to do anything or be required to do anything which, in their sole opinion, may conflict with:
 - 3.3.1. Any laws or regulations applicable in Sweden.
 - 3.3.2. Any term of any permit, consent, license or applicable codes of practice issued by any regulatory authority.
 - 3.3.3. Any provision of the Entity's constitutional documents.
 - 3.3.4. Provisions of any Service Agreement.

4. Instructions

- 4.1. Areta shall act on guidance or instructions provided by the Client, or a duly appointed agent of the same, in either writing or email.
- 4.2. Areta may reject to act on any guidance or instructions in the event of doubts as to the authenticity of such guidance or instructions and, in such events, shall not be held liable for the consequences of any such rejection.
- 4.3. Whereas guidance or instructions are received on behalf of the Client; this shall be entirely at the Client's own risk. Where such guidance or instructions are received, purporting to come from the Client or his duly appointed agent, Areta shall be entitled to accept such guidance or instructions as authentic and act on them accordingly. Areta shall not be held liable in any way whatsoever as consequence of acting on any such guidance or instructions.
- 4.4. Areta may commit to any instructions or requests made, notices given, or information supplied by any person designated in the Service Agreement, whom Areta knows to be authorised by the Client to communicate with them for such purposes in respect of Entity, provided that such instructions or requests be given in accordance with any requirements as specified in any Service Agreement.

5. Fees, billing and payment terms

- 5.1. Areta shall be entitled to remuneration in respect of the provided Services, or any other ad-hoc request accepted from the Client from time to time, in accordance with any Service Agreement in force between Areta and the Client. Should there be no such Service Agreement, such remuneration shall be in accordance with any other written agreement between Areta and the Client, or any Fee Schedule in force in relation to any of the Services.
- 5.2. Areta shall be entitled to a timely reimbursement for all disbursements and expenses incurred by Areta during the provision of the Services, or any other ad-hoc request accepted from the Client from time to time. This shall be intended to include, but not be limited to, disbursements and expenses properly incurred by Areta, unless previously charged directly to the Client or the Entity.

- 5.3. Any fee charged for the Services provided to each Entity shall be comprised by either an agreed fixed fee or variable fee, representing time spent and additional services provided in connection with the administration of the Entity, or a combination of the two. The need for time to be spent or additional Services to be provided in respect of the Entity during a period shall be at the sole determination of Areta none of which shall require the prior approval of the Entity or any Client beforehand.
- 5.4. Areta shall have the right to review its fees on an annual basis in line with its costs and the level of professionals providing services. Any increase arising from such review shall be up to 5% per annum unless higher level of inflation, of which the Client shall be informed of no later than 30 calendar days prior such increase.
- 5.5. All fees may annually be revised based on the consumer price index rate and market prices in the country where the Services shall be provided.
- 5.6. Invoices by Areta shall be issued annually in advance in relation to standard or fixed fees for Services, and monthly or quarterly in relation to additional fees for time spent and/or additional Services provided to each Entity during the preceding month/quarter, unless agreed otherwise. Invoices are payable within 14 (fourteen) days from the date of their issue. Any disputes in respect of fees falling outside of any Service Agreement, annual responsibility fees, taxes and disbursements shall be made in writing within 14 (fourteen) days of the invoice date.
- 5.7. Where any Agreement entered into between Areta and the Client, and/or the Entity, provides for the payment of fees other than in accordance with the Terms of Business, the terms of that Service Agreement shall prevail.
- 5.8. Whether or not an Entity has assets from which the fees, taxes and disbursements may be deducted, each Client, in accepting the Terms of Business, shall be deemed to guarantee the due payment of all fees, taxes and disbursements payable in respect of the Services provided by Areta to the Entity and/or Client. Additionally, by accepting the Terms of Business, the Client hereby expressly waives any right which he may have to require that Areta shall first seek recourse against the assets of the Entity before pursuing the Client under the guarantee.
- 5.9. In the event of non-payment of all or any part of any fees, expenses, disbursements, or liabilities which Areta is due, Areta will have the right to withhold the provision of the Services, regardless of the reasons behind said non-payment and until such time as any such outstanding amount has been settled to the satisfaction of Areta.

6. Client due Diligence (“CDD”) and undertakings

- 6.1. As part of Client acceptance procedure, Areta will be required by applicable laws and regulations to obtain CDD information and documentation to identify and verify the identity of the Client and certain persons of relevance to them connected.
- 6.2. The Client agrees that if such information and documentation is not made available to Areta when required by and in a form acceptable to Areta, Areta may without liability terminate the engagement with the Client with immediate effect. Areta shall at their discretion determine the time and form in which it shall be delivered at which such information and documentation is required.
- 6.3. The Client shall undertake and warrant that:
 - 6.3.1. All assets which are or shall be introduced to the Entity have been lawfully introduced and are not derived from or otherwise connected with any illegal activity.
 - 6.3.2. The Entity shall not be engaged or involved directly or indirectly with any unlawful activity or used for any unlawful purposes.

- 6.3.3. The information supplied to Areta in connection with the formation of any Entity was accurate and complete in all respects at the time it was submitted, and it will remain as such in the future.
- 6.3.4. The Services requested of Areta shall comply with all laws and regulations affecting or binding upon Areta and the Client and/or Entity and that all statements and documents which Areta or their Employees are requested to sign are true and accurate and lawful in all respects.
- 6.3.5. The Entity shall not undertake or be otherwise involved with any unlicensed activities.
- 6.3.6. The Client shall keep the Entity in sufficient liquidity such as to enable Areta to maintain the Entity in compliance with all filing requirements in any applicable jurisdiction, as well as any taxation and governmental dues payable by the Entity.
- 6.3.7. The Entity shall not undertake or be otherwise involved with any unlicensed activities.
- 6.3.8. All taxes required to be paid as a result of the provision of the Services shall be duly paid, and that the Client and/or Entity shall make such disclosure and report such matters in full.
- 6.3.9. There shall be no transfer, pledging or assignment of the ownership of any Entity to which the Services relate without Areta prior written consent.
- 6.3.10. The affairs of any Entity shall be conducted only by the duly appointed officers of such Entity, or other representative duly appointed by the Entity's officers, and in no circumstances shall the Client take or cause to be taken any action regarding any Entity (including entering into or purporting to enter into contracts on its behalf) without the written consent of the said officers.
- 6.3.11. The Client shall notify Areta before disaffecting, assigning, selling, pledging or otherwise disposing of or burden with obligations any part of their interest in the Entity.
- 6.3.12. The source of any funding or fees or any other asset provided from the Client to Areta for the Services or for any other purpose shall be ever lawful.
- 6.3.13. The Client shall notify Areta of:
 - a) any event which could be reasonably foreseen to have a material effect on the Entity or its assets or activities (including, without limitation, any act evidencing the insolvency of the Client or commencing its liquidation, winding up or dissolution) or upon Areta willingness to continue to provide the Services.
 - b) any actual or threatened litigation in any jurisdiction or any actual or threatened investigation by any judicial or regulatory authority in respect of the Client or any Entity administered on behalf of the Client and any progress thereof, and he shall promptly provide such information as Areta may, in its discretion, require in respect thereof.
 - c) Any criminal charges or any criminal, judicial or regulatory investigation in any jurisdiction regarding the Entity or any of its officers or employees, that were not provided by Areta, or any Client in relation to that Entity.

7. Anti-bribery corruption

- 7.1. Areta shall maintain policies and procedures ensuring compliance by an Entity and all directors and officers thereof (whether provided by Areta or otherwise) with all applicable laws, statutes, regulations and codes relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption including but not limited to the extent it has extra-territorial effect.

- 7.2. Areta shall require from all Entities to which the Services are provided, and the directors or officers thereof to comply with the same or similar anti-bribery and anti-corruption policies and procedures.
- 7.3. Any breach or reasonable suspicion of such breach of said policies or procedures by an Entity or any directors or officers thereof, not provided by Areta, shall constitute a material breach of the Terms of Business and any Service Agreement for the purposes of Clause 16 hereof.

8. Indemnity

- 8.1. The provisions of this Clause shall not prejudice to any other limitation of liability or indemnity given in favour of Areta in any Service Agreement and shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding termination of the Services.
- 8.2. Except in the case of gross negligence, fraud and/or wilful misconduct, Areta shall not be liable to any Entity or Client for any loss or damage of whatsoever nature including but not limited to any indirect or consequential loss or damage (whether foreseeable or in the contemplation of Areta or the Client) suffered by such Entity or Client arising out of or in connection with the Services, with the intent that any liability shall be excluded to the extent permitted by law.
- 8.3. Areta shall not be liable to any Entity or Client for any loss or damage of whatever nature, including but not limited to any indirect or consequential loss or damage (whether foreseeable or in the contemplation of Areta or the Client) suffered by such Entity or Client arising out of or in connection with the termination of the Services pursuant to the provisions of Clause 6.2 hereof.
- 8.4. Areta may, in addition to indemnity given by the Client and the Entity as aforesaid, require that each Entity to which it provides Services shall purchase and pay for out of its own assets suitable professional and/or directors' and officers' ("D&O") liability insurance to cover and include Areta and/or their Employees under the terms of such policy.
- 8.5. In the event of any bank at which Areta arranges to hold client funds on behalf of any Entity or Client, being subject to or undergoing any form of insolvency (liquidation, administration or other similar processes), Areta shall not be liable in any way to the Entity or the Client arising from the insolvency including without limitation the loss of any or all of the funds held at such a bank.
- 8.6. Areta shall not be held liable for any failure or delay or loss or damage of whatever nature in the performance of its obligations in connection with the Services arising out of or in connection with circumstances beyond its control of (including, without limitation, force majeure, civil or military disturbances, acts of terrorism, natural disaster, act of government or any other authority, accidents, labour disputes or any power, telecommunications or computer failure).
- 8.7. Areta shall, in the event of any seriously disruptive event occurring and impacting the business of Areta, aim to restore the provision of Services as soon as practicable. Nevertheless, Areta shall not be responsible for any delay caused by such disruption or for any other consequences beyond its control.
- 8.8. Any claim made by any Entity or Client against Areta, whether in contract or misdemeanour (including gross negligence) or under statute or otherwise, shall be made within 2 (two) years of the date on which the work giving rise to the claim was performed on behalf of the Entity or Client. For these purposes a claim shall be deemed to have been made when proceedings are commenced before a court of competent jurisdiction or other dispute resolution body.

9. Conflict of Interest

- 9.1. Areta shall always reserve the right to provide services to other entities and clients in their absolute discretion and without prior reference to or approval of any other Entity or Client.

- 9.2. Should Areta decide to terminate the provision of Services to any Entity in circumstances of a conflict of interest, then none of such parties shall be liable for any expenses or losses arising from any such termination, including but not limited to the losses arising from any lost opportunities for the Entity or the Client in relation to a particular transaction.
- 9.3. Nothing in the Terms of Business or any Service Agreement shall prevent Areta from contracting or entering into any financial, banking or other transaction with an Entity or Client, or any company, corporation, partnership or other unincorporated company, shares, or interests in which are comprised in or constitute any of the investments, which are held by or for the account of a Client or Entity, or from being interested in any such contract or transaction and Areta shall not be liable to account to any person for any profits or benefits made or derived by them in connection with any such transaction.

10. Confidentiality

- 10.1. Areta shall keep all information concerning the Entity which is not publicly available confidential unless:
 - 10.1.1. It is required or necessary to disclose information concerning the Client and/or the Entity by virtue of applicable laws or regulations, or by a government department, regulatory authority (including but not limited to the taxation laws and regulations of Sweden) or by order of a court in Sweden or any other courts of competent jurisdiction.
 - 10.1.2. Areta is expressly authorised by the Entity or the Client to disclose any information in respect of said Entity.
 - 10.1.3. Areta is expressly authorised to disclose such information in furtherance of the provision of Services to Entity's third adviser, as is in their sole view appropriate (unless the Client has given express instructions not to do so).
 - 10.1.4. Such disclosure is necessary to defend any claim brought against Areta by any person, whether the Entity, the Client or otherwise.
- 10.2. Areta may disclose information relating to the Client and/or the Entity to its any subsidiary or affiliate if this complies with applicable laws and regulations.

11. Complaints

- 11.1. The client manager, as designated in the applicable Service Agreement, shall ultimately be responsible for all the Services provided in respect of each Entity. If any matters arising from the Services provided by Areta need to be discussed, these should be addressed to the client manager responsible for the Entity in writing. Any complaints regarding any matter, if not satisfactorily resolved by the client manager, should be addressed in writing to Areta's management.

12. Joint and several liabilities

- 12.1. Nothing in the Service Agreement shall exclude or limit:
 - 12.1.1. Either party's direct loss for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
 - 12.1.2. Client's obligation to pay fees and expenses.
- 12.2. No party shall be liable for any loss of goodwill, business, revenue or profits (whether or not deemed to constitute direct losses) or any consequential, special, indirect, punitive or exemplary loss, damages or expense.

- 12.3. Any liability of a party will be reduced to consider any contributory negligence by the counterparty and the extent to which the other counterparty has caused or contributed to the relevant loss or liability.
- 12.4. Whether with respect to an indemnity or whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty or otherwise, the maximum liability of each party shall in aggregate per calendar year not exceed the total amount of fees paid or payable for the Services over the period of 12 (twelve) months immediately preceding the claim, or pro-rated amount if the engagement has been for a short period of time.
- 12.5. Each party shall use reasonable efforts to mitigate any losses that it may suffer or incur, whether by way of indemnity or otherwise, in whole or in part from the other party.
- 12.6. The Client may not make a claim against Areta 2 (two) years after the moment the Client was aware or could reasonably have been aware of the event that led to the claim.

13. Severability

- 13.1. If any time one or more of the provisions of the Terms of Business becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, then that provision shall be severed from the remainder and the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Terms of Business shall not be affected or impaired in any way.

14. Data protection

- 14.1. Areta shall be constrained at all times by the requirements of applicable data protection laws. Areta shall ensure that any personal data gathered under the terms of the engagement will be processed in accordance with the requirements of applicable data protection laws and only for the purposes of providing the Services (and any purpose ancillary thereto).
- 14.2. The parties acknowledge and agree that the Services provided by Areta might involve the processing of personal data or data subjects on behalf of the Client and that, with respect to such personal data, Areta will be acting as processor, and the Client will be acting as controller for such personal data.
- 14.3. Aforementioned processing is subject to the Areta Personal Data Protection Policy which is hereby incorporated by reference into any Service Agreement.

15. Client and Entity funds

- 15.1. Funds belonging to the Client, or the Entity shall always be maintained separate from the funds of Areta.
- 15.2. On receipt of any funds Areta shall be satisfied as to the source of the funds. If it has any doubts as to the source of the funds Areta may be bound by law to notify the relevant authorities.

- 15.3. All transfers and transmissions of funds, assets or documents are made at the risk of the Entity and the Client. Areta shall not be liable for any loss, damage or delays caused which is not directly caused by its gross negligence, fraud and/or willful misconduct.

16. Termination

- 16.1. Areta may terminate the provision of the Services to the Entity at any time upon giving 3 (three) months' notice to the Entity and, where appropriate, the Client in writing.
- 16.2. Areta may terminate the provision of the Services to the Entity immediately, upon written notice given to the Entity and, where appropriate, the Client if in the opinion of Areta:
- 16.2.1. The Client and/or Entity has breached any of the Terms of Business or the provisions of any Service Agreement.
 - 16.2.2. In Areta's sole opinion, the Client and/or Entity cannot meet its payment obligations pursuant to the Terms of Business, any Service Agreement or Fee Schedule.
 - 16.2.3. The Entity is, or very likely to become, insolvent or subject to a creditor (insolvent) winding-up or any equivalent or similar procedure in any jurisdiction.
 - 16.2.4. There has been a change in ownership (either legal or beneficial) of the Entity such that there shall be a new Client in relation to the Entity.
 - 16.2.5. The Entity or any of its officers or employees, that were not provided by Areta, or any Client in relation to that Entity has been charged with any criminal offence or is or has been the subject of any criminal, judicial or regulatory investigation in any jurisdiction.
 - 16.2.6. There has been a failure on the part of the Entity and/or the Client to supply such CDD in relation to any Client or the Entity as shall be required by Areta or any such information supplied in relation to CDD is deemed by Areta to be deliberately false or misleading.
 - 16.2.7. Areta considers it necessary or appropriate to terminate the Services because a conflict of interest has arisen in relation to the Entity and/or the Client in relation thereto.
 - 16.2.8. Any fees, taxes and disbursements invoices by Areta in relation to any Entity have remained outstanding and unpaid in whole or in part for more than 90 (ninety) days after the invoice date. This shall in no way be intended as to mean that Areta recuses its rights to any such unpaid sum.
- 16.3. In the event of a termination of the Services, Areta shall not be obligated to file any statutory or legal documents or, if appropriate, pay any government fees and taxes in respect of the Entity and in such circumstances the Client will have no claims against Areta.
- 16.4. The Entity and/or the Client may terminate the appointment of Areta in respect of the Services on giving 3 (three) months' written notice addressed to Areta.
- 16.5. Upon termination of the Services for any reason, the Entity and/or the Client shall, where applicable, immediately provide details of the new service provider which shall be required to maintain the Entity in good standing under the laws and regulations and shall provide an address to which Areta may transfer all books and records of the Entity. If the relevant information in relation to any new service provider is not provided to Areta, Areta shall reserve the right to withdraw Services without appointment of any replacement service provider and to arrange for the resignation of any directors, trustees or other officers of any Entity without the appointment of successors, unless the laws and regulations prevent any such unilateral withdrawal.

- 16.6. In addition to the above, upon termination it shall be the responsibility of the Client and/or Entity to de-register (i.e., register the Entity or Entities on a new address in the applicable jurisdiction the Entity or Entities are domicile) Areta's premise as the registered address of the Entity or Entities before the end date. In case of failure to do so, the Client and/or Entity will be charged a daily fee equal to 5% of the last paid yearly invoice, or EUR 100, whichever is amount would be higher.
- 16.7. All hourly fee costs and disbursements in connection with the termination or transfer of administration of any Entity as a result of any notice to terminate Services whether before or after the termination taking effect shall be chargeable in accordance with any Service Agreement or Fee Schedule.
- 16.8. Areta shall be entitled to retain any fees paid in advance by the Client and/or the Entity for the provision of Services beyond the date of termination.

17. Books and records

- 17.1. In the event of non-payment of all or any part of any fees, expenses or disbursements due to Areta or which Areta is liable to pay on behalf of the Entity or in respect of which the Entity becomes liable to Areta in any other manner, Areta shall have a lien over, or the right not to release from the possession or control of Areta, all or any document or assets, including assets held on behalf of or to the order of the Entity, or on behalf of or to the order of any company or other body in common ownership with the Entity (or otherwise connected or affiliated to the Entity in any manner), until such time as all such fees, expenses, disbursements or liabilities due and payable are discharged. For the avoidance of doubt, this lien shall apply to all documents and assets held in relation to the matter in respect of which the fees, expenses, disbursements, or liability have been incurred and in relation to any other matter whatsoever relating to the Entity.
- 17.2. Further, should Areta cease to act or in relation to the Entity, a final invoice will be submitted, and Areta reserves all rights to exercise the right of the lien aforesaid over all documents and assets held on behalf of the Entity or in relation to the Entity until such time as the final invoice is discharged in full.
- 17.3. Subject to payment in full of all such fees, taxes and disbursements, Areta shall in all cases where a successor service provider has been appointed liaise with that service provider to supply originals (or, if so requested copies) of all documents and agreements entered into by the Entity which Areta may have held during the period of the provision of the Services. Areta shall always reserve the right to retain copies of any such original documents and agreements which may be requested to be handed over to any successor service provider. Areta further reserves the right to require payment of reasonable copying charges before handing over any originals or supplying any copies of original documents and agreements.
- 17.4. Where, during the provision of the Services, Areta has created any form of document relating to the provision of Services not intended by Areta to be supplied to or seen by the Entity and/or the Client, or any other officer or employee of the Entity not supplied by Areta, such internal documents shall belong exclusively to Areta, which shall not be obliged to hand over originals or make copies available of any such documents unless ordered to do so by a court, having jurisdiction in relation to Areta.

- 17.5. Where Areta shall retain originals or copies of any documents belonging to an Entity following the termination of the Services, then Areta shall reserve the right to retain such copies for a period of ten (10) years from the date of the termination of the Services. During such period, Areta shall reserve the right (but shall not be under an obligation) to make electronic copies of any such documents as well as to destroy hard copies of any such documents that they shall have retained. After the tenth anniversary of the termination of the Services for any reason, Areta will have the inalienable right to destroy all any copies of every document retained (whether originals, photocopies or electronic copies), which were not yet destroyed in compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The continued retention (whether in electronic form or otherwise) of all documents, whether internal or otherwise, prepared by Areta during the period of the provision of Services, is on the understanding that Areta has the right to destroy all such documents (whether originals, photocopies or electronic copies) at such times as Areta in its sole discretion considers appropriate. All Clients and Entities accept that they shall have no right to call upon Areta for the provision of any documents (whether electronic, originals or copies) more than ten years after date of termination of the Services for any reason.
- 17.6. Where any former Client or any Entity, to which Areta has previously provided Services, shall request the production of documents after the termination of Services, Areta shall reserve the right to charge for time spent in retrieving and supplying any such documents and to charge all copying costs as disbursements.

18. Variation and review

- 18.1. Areta shall reserve the right to revise the Terms of Business or Fee Schedule from time to time including during the provision of the Services to any Entity. Where the Terms of Business or Fee Schedule are varied during the provision of these Services, Areta shall draw all such variations to the attention of each Entity and each Client in writing before the coming into force of any such variation and re-issue.
- 18.2. Each Entity and each Client shall have the right to request a written copy of the Terms of Business or Fee Schedule to be supplied with any Service Agreement in relation to Service from time to time in force.

19. Assignment

- 19.1. Areta may assign or transfer the whole or any part of its rights and benefits under the Terms of Business, provided that the Entity and/or the Client shall give written consent before the assignment or transfer takes place. For the purpose of any such assignment or transfer, Areta may disclose information about the Client and any relevant Entity to any prospective assignee or transferor, provided Areta shall use its reasonable endeavors to procure that such prospective assignee or transferor is placed under an obligation of non-disclosure.
- 19.2. The Entity and/or the Client shall not assign or transfer all or any part of their rights or benefits under the Terms of Business.

20. Notices

- 20.1. Without prejudice to any terms specified in any Service Agreement for the giving of notice between Areta and any Entity and/or the Client, any notice required to be given under the Terms of Business shall be in writing addressed to the party concerned at its address from time to time, notified to the other for the purpose, failing which to the registered office or last known business address of such party.

21. Governing law

- 21.1. The Terms of Business and any documents, agreements and forms which are deemed to form part of the Terms of Business (unless there is a separate proper law clause set out in any such document, agreement or form) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Sweden as the jurisdiction of the party providing the services and Entity and/or the Client hereby submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Sweden in all matters arising out of or in connection with the Terms of Business but subject to Areta's right to institute proceedings in any other court of competent jurisdiction.
